Commercial Bank Announces New Board Member

ITHACA, Mich. — Commercial Bank and Commercial National Financial Corporation is pleased to welcome a new member to the board of directors, Aaron Davis. Davis assumed his position on the board November 1, 2019.

“We are really excited about Aaron’s addition,” said Scott Sheldon, Chairman of the Board. “He is well-respected in the manufacturing industry and will bring a wealth of knowledge to the team.”

Davis serves as Vice President and part-owner of Craig Frames Inc., located in Ithaca, Michigan. Craig Frames Inc. is a wholesale and e-commerce picture frame manufacturer that has grown into one of the largest picture frames manufacturers in the country, distributing frames all over the world.

Davis earned a degree in Applied Science from Ferris State University.

A lifelong resident of central Michigan, Aaron and his wife, Richelle, were actively involved in the Gratiot County Toys for Tots program from 1999 to 2017. For more than 10 of those years, they were directors of the program. They are parents to three children and currently reside in Alma.
